HELPLINE

Lisa F.: There were 493 calls to the Twin Cities Area Helpline in January 2006. Later today, after I get the changes from Ryan, I will update the list of meetings on the phone message. I am still in the process of rotating call receiver slots and plan to be done by March. I hope that GSRs have brought back the sign up sheets this month, so I can finish. I plan to look into having a Learning Day about the Helpline this spring. Respectfully submitted, Lisa F.

H&I

Justin P.: not here. Excused.

LITERATURE

Todd S.: Hello All,

Not much going on right now. The input and review process is finished for the Public Relations Handbook Chapters 10-13. There wasn't much interest in this piece of literature. I did have a couple of interested people give input but nothing that would considerably revise an/or edit the original draft out for input and review. There is nothing really to work on right now so I will not be having any subcommittee meetings. If anyone has any ideas on existing or creating new literature please contact at 763-218-7220 or email:

OUTREACH

Bryon B.: Gave a verbally report. E-mail report was not received.

OPEN FORUM & ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Wondering about getting something for our hearing impaired. Wanting some interrupters. Look at the back of the meeting list. It's a good thing to have an interrupter. Request for people who knows how to sign. Who would be willing to volunteer? Work with Seth M. on getting another meeting started in another week or two.

NEW BUSINESS:

RCM and RCM-A elections moved to old business for next month.
